Message from the President

Dear Graduating Class,

On behalf of the Bow Valley College community, congratulations!

Convocation is about you! It is an occasion when the college community, family, and friends come together to celebrate your significant achievement. That you have made it to this day is a testimony to your resilience, creativity, and commitment. By challenging your thinking, you gained the work-ready skills that will make a difference in our communities and our economy.

During your time at Bow Valley College, and with the support of your peers and instructors, you made your learning count. Take a moment to reflect on the encouragement you received from others along your journey. Your supporters helped you to be your best, and they are excited for what you will accomplish next.

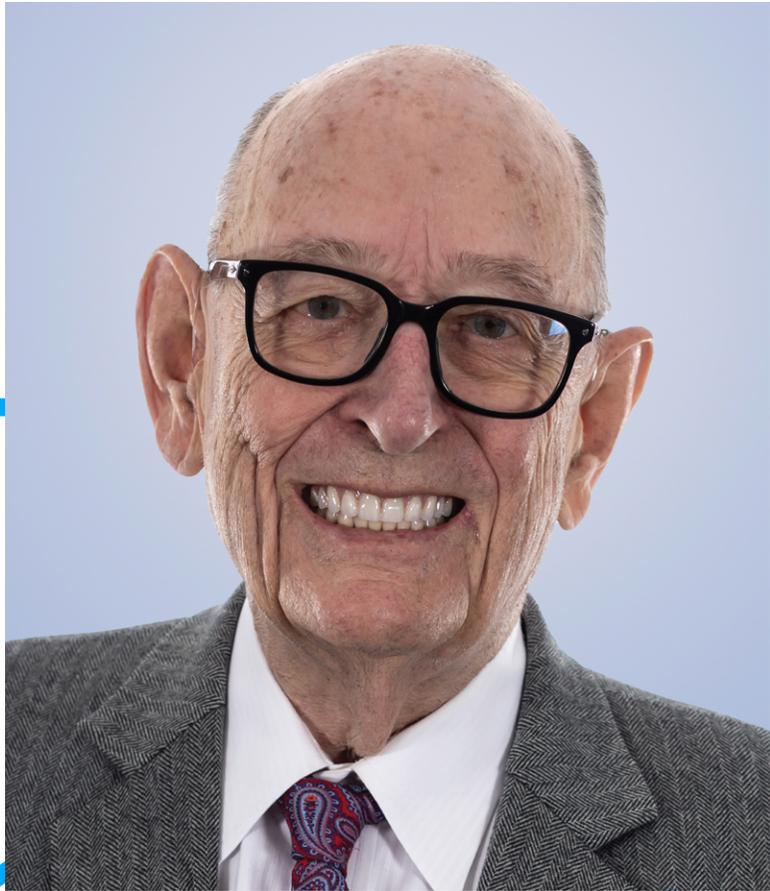

A Bow Valley College education opens doors for your future and provides new opportunities. You have the skills to get jobs or to be job creators. As you embark on your next career steps as a member of this alumni community, know that we will continue to be here to help you reach your lifelong learning goals.

Congratulations once again on your achievement. You have worked hard, and we are confident that you will achieve great things. Good luck!

Sincerely,

Misheck Mwaba, PhD., P.Eng.
President and CEO

Honorary Diploma Recipient

Ross W. Glen, O.C.
Founder and Chairman, RGO Products

Ross Glen is a prominent businessman and generous philanthropist.

After working in typewriter sales and repairs, he founded RGO Products Inc. in 1966 and was President of the company until 2016. He is currently the Chairman of RGO.

He has served as the Chair of Bow Valley College's Quest for Best campaign, and on the boards of the Calgary Chamber of Commerce, the Calgary Stampeders, Willow Park Classic, Alberta Economic Development, and the World Presidents' Organization.

Ross, his family, and RGO are advocates of Bow Valley College students. Their commitment and passion have helped remove many barriers that our students face.

Ross was appointed to the Order of Canada in 2020 and inducted into the Alberta Business Hall of Fame in 2016.

Ross and his late wife, Shirley were married for more than 50 years. They have two daughters, Cathy and Debbie, and five grandchildren.

He is an avid fan of the Calgary Flames and the Calgary Stampeders. When he is not working, he enjoys spending time with his family and friends.

Valedictorians

Christina Stafford

Child and Youth Care Diploma, School of Community Studies

Christina had always dreamed of going back to school since completing her General Education Development (GED) through Bow Valley College more than 15 years ago.

A single mother, Christina always had a passion for working with youth, but could not get the job in the field she wanted without education. She chose the Child and Youth Care Diploma at Bow Valley College because of the flexibility it offered, enabling her to study while being a parent and continuing to work.

Christina is now enrolled in the University of Victoria's Bachelor of Child and Youth Care program. Her goal is to obtain a master's degree and then return to Bow Valley College as an instructor.

"I can honestly say that my time at Bow Valley College was the best time in my life," she says. "Meeting like-minded people from all walks of life, all ages, with all kinds of experiences was amazing for my learning."

Agustina Antelo Business Administration Diploma – Human Resources Major, Chiu School of Business

Agustina has worked as a quality assurance analyst in her home country of Uruguay and is also a certified English-Spanish translator. She holds a bachelor's degree, which she completed in 2016.

Realizing that the parts of her work she loved most were related to human resources, she began looking around for the right school. She chose the Business Administration Diploma at Bow Valley College because of the practical approach to learning it offers.

In addition to her studies, Agustina made use of her time outside the classroom at Bow Valley College by volunteering as a peer tutor, taking part in the Alberta Deans of Business Case Competition, and participating in many extracurricular workshops and activities.

Agustina's dream job is in training and employee development.

"I want to be able to collaborate and support people to help them reach their full potential," she says.

Jose Pereyra Digital Design Diploma, 2023

Shortly after moving to Canada from the Dominican Republic in 2021 to begin the Digital Design diploma program at Bow Valley College, Jose Pereyra was hired as a marketing associate for a furniture company.

He credits the time and care his instructors invested in helping him to understand English terminology common in his field, as well as the confidence built by establishing relationships with clients for opening the door to his new role as marketing manager with the same company.

Jose was drawn to the program through his interest in design and drawing, and the connection to marketing that focuses on finding ways to appeal to customers and influence their decisions. He says being a student at Bow Valley College helped his resume stand out and his time as a student helped him grow into his current role.

“When I finished my Bow Valley college diploma, my mind was opened to so many great opportunities,” says Jose. “I also keep in touch with all my classmates, and we’ll still talk about important things in the industry. They’re a really good source of creativity.”
